

SAMS Meeting Minutes 10/6/21

1. Treasurer Report:
 - Current balance: $13,152.80
 - Outstanding ACH: $60 Coke
 - No Outstanding deposits
 - $1000 in start up will be returned to the account after the last concession stand.
2. Concessions have been much better this year and we have had good luck in getting workers.
3. Greenery: Coming soon
 - Deb Rathjens has agreed to help until Leah Kearney is able to take over.
 - Online Ordering: ?
 - Need to charge for tax this year or add a small handling fee for each order. Last year we lost a couple hundred $ due to not charging tax.
4. Kathy's pies: All set until it's time to set the selling grid after the first of the year.
5. AD report: nothing to report.
 - Still to discuss how funding is dispersed w/Jaime and Joe.
6. Upcoming events:
 - Band/Choir concert on October 28th @ 6 pm May be in the main gym
 - Dance has a performance Oct 23
 - Elementary Halloween dance on October 29, sponsored by the Dance team
 - Dance competition October 30th
 - Senior night for color guard and band is October 8th during halftime of the football game
7. Abby Stoll(via email): 5th and 6th grade art having been working from the drawing center, printmaking center, and collage center. They just finished their standard 11, where we talked about how art might change beliefs and values, and how traditions and resources change over time. I do not need anything at this time.
8. Ryan: K-6 is going quick
 - k/1st grade combined
 - 5 & 6th learning piano
 - 5th graders are excited about band
 - MS will be ready. Has 16 members and are very motivated
 - HS-less motivated but they sound great
 - Tri Rivers Nov 15th HS vocal @ Starmont 6 pm. Only 8 students allowed per school and only group songs allowed.
9. Andrew:
 - 5th grade band has 22 members
 - 6th is making good progress
 - MS-17 members and is doing very well. MS Tri Rivers is Oct 21st at Starmont
 - HS-wrapping up Marching Band. Did a competition at Marion and have improved a ton with feedback from that. Hoping to compete next year. They learned their 3rd song in less than a week.
10. Liz: Fall Color Guard: 8 members and is going well
 - Winter Guard has 9 members. ISDTA show will be Incredibles as a group. s/b done learning routines by Nov 1st. Has several individuals performing solos at ISDTA this year.

- Cost for Color Guard for ISDTA is: $98.00 team, $300 for 5 solos, $37.50 membership fee (being split with Dance), $12 for Olivia to go. Total needed is $1513.74. Will submit funding request once flocking is done.
 - Girls want to do flocking as a fundraiser again this year.
 - Might need more pants for Band/Choir uniforms
 - In the process of separating color guard from band account
11. Kasey: Has 8 members
- Upcoming performances: Oct 23 @ Monticello, Oct 30th Dance Challenge @ Jefferson.
 - Nov 20th hosting Tri Rivers Showcase for local teams of Dance, Color Guard and Cheer. Might need someone to run small concessions for this. 2-4 pm? This will be for teams and solos and admission will be $5.
12. Josh Stoll: Speech has not started yet. Some late additions to the team. Will hold another meeting on Oct 11. Has no needs at this time.
13. Emily Horak: K-doing great for such a lg group.
- 1st transition to Day of Dead
 - 2nd learning Van Gough
 - 3rd is a new group
 - 4th learning Laurel Birth Paint: Cats
 - 8th: Zentangles, not quite ready for paint. Drawing Victorian art
 - Drawing-Outside
 - Painting: learning the color wheel/theory, text & graphics
 - Print making: new class and learning together.
 - Ceramics: Pinch pots, coil, mugs next.
 - May need funding for tools & glass kiln
 - Needs clarification of funds available to her as the account is split between 2 teachers.

Next Meeting November 3rd at 6:45 pm, may change depending on State Volleyball

In attendance Jaime Zaruba, Katie Bragg, Amy Hosek, Liz Thurston, Andrew Escalante, Ryan Batisto, Emily Horak, Josh Stoll, Kasey Carlson.